HEY! I'm not kidding.

There wase thise dude once once that was able to rock the cats so long that the give on his hide would ride throughout the night, falling upon the ears of bouncing dancers in fringed dresses like raindraps in the gutter. The dream continued. The bells headed lovely and violently running towards their various temples and churches in a rescue attempt to some the poor boy from the evil grosps of Harman Itesse. he was indeed becoming

In a desporate attempt to cetain existence in the world as we know if the boy recited one last line of rationality told to him by his member Constantin Stanislavski, "An actor most work all his life rultivate his mind, train his talents, systematically develop his character he may never relenguish this main purpose to love his art with all his strength and love it unselfishly." - Stanislavski was a schauvanist-. "Few if on, survive their teens. Most surrender to the vague unarchorous pressure of adult conformity. It becomes easier to die and avoid conflicts than to maintain a constant battle with the superior forces of maturity"- Maja Angelon... Then the boy awoke from his dream. I love C.F. - Paul Graf (i)
